

BAMBOOZLED By David Legge

This wonderful picture book provides great pictures for exploring. It can be used to elicit lots of wonderful language. Many new words can be discussed. In addition to this, the book can be used for an early reading and spelling task.

Below are a list of single three sound regular words that relate to each page. The number relates to the scene.

Say each word and students write them or print out the cards and students can read the words and then locate the action/item on the page. On the next page, you will find a FILL IN THE GAP activity that relates to each page. A word from below is used for each.
